

What is Camp Courage?

Grieving the loss of a loved one can be especially hard for children and teens. Camp Courage provides a supportive and safe environment for young people to:

- Express their emotions.
- Connect with others who share similar experiences.
- Understand they are not alone in their grief.
- Begin the healing process through fun and therapeutic activities led by trained counselors.

Who Can Attend?

Children and teens, ages 6–14, who have experienced the death of a loved one.
